VIPAR Heavy Duty Welcomes Tri Cities Truck Parts as New Stockholder
Strategic addition provides distribution in Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi

Crystal Lake, Ill. – Tri Cities Truck Parts is the newest company to join the VIPAR Heavy Duty network of distributors as a stockholder. Located in Muscle Shoals, Ala., Tri Cities Truck Parts serves customers with parts for class 6-8 trucks in northwestern Alabama, south central Tennessee and northeastern Mississippi.

The company provides brakes, air brake components, spring and suspension parts, filters and transmission differential components for logging operators, owner operators, small fleets and county municipalities. They also make hydraulic hoses.

"With the value we provide through our leading brands and nationwide network, we are pleased to welcome Tri Cities Truck Parts to the VIPAR Heavy Duty family of distributors," explained Jim Pennig, vice president of business development for VIPAR Heavy Duty. "Serving customers in three states from their location in northwestern Alabama, they provide us with a strategic partner in the southern U.S."
